THE GIRL BETWEEN LIGHT AND DARK Sequel of *The Girl Between Two Worlds

Filipino-Australian author releases sequel to bestselling YA novel

Author Kristyn Maslog-Levis is excited to announce the release of her second book, The Girl Between Light and Dark. The story continues the journey of 16-year-old Karina, where everything is a struggle after she took over her mother's role as the next heir in Engkantasia. She faces lukewarm reception from the royal guild who doubts her capability to rule the kingdom well, she yearns for the family she left in the human world, and she has to beat the daughter of one of the council leaders who challenged her for the throne. Feeling lost, she wanders around the kingdom and stumbles upon the mysterious Untraveled Forest, where she soon finds herself in the midst of a secret plot to take over the two worlds. Now she must find a way to save Engkantasia and the human world from the clutches of the Dark Clans.

"I feel so overwhelmed by the reaction I received from my first book. I am glad that there are people out there who understand why I wrote the duology in the first place. I've always wanted to give our rich Philippine mythology a platform to grow, so other countries could enjoy and learn about our culture, too. I hope to continue this tradition in my future books," Kristyn said.

Kristyn is the creative director of 3CD, a social media and digital marketing specialist agency based in Sydney, Australia. She has over 15 years of local and international experience as a journalist. Several of her works have been published in The New York Times and Al Jazeera. She worked as a TV reporter for ABS-CBN before finishing her master's degree in communication under the ASEAN scholarship at Nanyang Technological University in Singapore.

Kristyn has self-published two children's books in Amazon titled The Dragon and The Lizard and We Have It All.
